

2018 MASTERPEACEWALK Maasailand, Kenya

100 kilometers PEACE AND CONSERVATION WALK

An unforgettable experience in nature together with unique people from different backgrounds, Maasai and people from Western countries, will bring you new insights into your personal leadership and talent development.

2018 Thursday May 10– Friday May 18

CONTRIBUTE TO THE MISSION OF MASTERPEACE:

- * Create and nurture peace through silence and dialogue
- * Promote mobilizing talents for a sustainable future with less armed conflicts
- * Raise awareness on the importance of the nature and sustainability

WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

- * Learn about the Maasai culture and the vision of the Maasai on leadership
- * Discover the value of dialogue and talent development
- * Experience the role of nature and the power of letting go
- * Enlarge your view on life with the Maasai warriors, the entrepreneurs, local leaders, village elders, women, youth teachers and families.

WHAT DO WE ASK FROM YOU?

- * Connect, learn, share and inspire each other
- * Inspire us with your vision, knowledge and experience

Ezekiel Ole Katato, Maasai elder and founder of Across Maasailand Initiative, invites YOU to join:

“The walk will offer you an incredible opportunity for discovery, dialogue, respect and joy in nature, and building mutual cultural learning and understanding”.

WITH WHOM

*24 participants from the Netherlands and other Western countries: entrepreneurs, leaders, creatives, and students.
24 local Maasai participants arranged by MasterPeace Maasai Land.*

Participants from MasterPeace Kenya (Nairobi)

COSTS *

€ 1.850,-

- * included: food, overnight stays, programming, guides, transportation
- * not included : flight ,visa, extra nights and vaccinations
MP staff and students pay € 1450,-

ORGANISATION

in Kenya

MasterPeace Maasailand: Ezekiel Ole Katato

in EU

MasterPeace EU: Anne-Mariecke Haijntink, Brigitte Arts, Bram Adema, Stefan Schuwer

Mail : mpmaasaiwalk@masterpeace.org

Web : <http://masterpeace.nl/masterpeacewalk-kenia>

© Nils Elzenga